'Our Myosotis noticeboard just got bigger'

Officially being unveiled at London Design Festival will be the 'Myosotis Grande', a large magnetic noticeboard, available in a range of exciting colours, perfect for the office, home or workspace. Simple yet elegant, each board is manufactured and hand-finished using Sheffield Steel. The design of the board creates a lip at the base of the product perfect for storing important items, documents or keepsakes.

New & limited edition colours

During the event Psalt will unveil the Myosotis series in 'Graphite Grey'. Neutral yet striking, this colour way will fit in stylishly in any environment.

A limited edition 'Apple Green' colour way will also be released in the Myosotis series which will be available for the duration of the show. Fun & functional, this is a statement piece with a colourful twist.
