NEWCASTLE AND SHEFFIELD BASED DESIGN
STUDIO ANNOUNCED AS A FINALIST AT THIS YEAR'S NORTHERN DESIGN AWARDS.

Newcastle and Sheffield based interior design studio, Psalt Design, has been shortlisted in the 'Designer Maker' category at this year's prestigious Northern Design Awards.

Psalt Design, a Northern based creative studio which designs and manufactures furniture and interior products which are all manufactured in the North of England, has been shortlisted in the 'Designer Maker' category at this year's Northern Design Awards.

The event, hosted on Friday the 24th November in Manchester, will see many of the countries leading architects, designers and creatives come together to celebrate the wealth of talent the North has to offer.

Having set up the business 7 years ago, Richard Bell, Founder and Director of Psalt has designed and manufactured a range of interior products which have been sold all over the world and specified for brands including 'Nando's', 'ProperCorn' and 'AllStay Apartments'.

With a focus on concept, material and process, Psalt designs and manufactures high-quality design led products, made by hand in the North, which are available for both domestic and commercial spaces.

Psalt Design are set to find out if they have won this award on Friday 24th November in Manchester when the winners will be announced.

"We are really excited to be included as a finalist in the 'Designer Maker' category at this years awards. It's great to be recognised for the work we are doing and celebrated for our ethos of working alongside local craftsmen to develop and manufacture our products."
